CHIC, AHOY

Chanel's latest Métiers d'Art collection, Paris-Hamburg, takes inspiration from the port town of Karl Lagerfeld's birth—with plenty of cool sailor accoutrements, to boot.

SUNRISE GLOW

An effortless day look that uses only two shades, start off by dusting on the burnt orange hue as a base and lightly blending it over the eyes and lower lids. Keeping close to the lash line, follow up by subtly lining the eyes with gold eyeshadow. Layering a gold shade over the orange adds depth while creating a warm and flattering pop of colour. Skip out on harsh eyeliner and load up on mascara instead.
